

Application form for appeal notice

Building and Development Tribunal Appeal Notice

Integrated Planning Act 1997, Vegetation Management Act 1999

1. Applicant details

Only the applicant/s for a vegetation clearing application can appeal to the Tribunal.

Clearly identify who is making the appeal.

All correspondence will be mailed to this address.

Name (if a company, also provide a contact name)

Phone number

Mobile phone/Business phone

Email address

Contact person (if required)

Postal address

2. Property description

Street address (include no., street, suburb and postcode)

Lot on plan description (eg. Lot 123 on RP 4567)

3. Grounds of appeal

Tick applicable box

Note: An appeal for ongoing applications except for an appeal against a deemed refusal, can not be made to the Tribunal unless the applicant has first made representations about the matter to NR&W in accordance with section 3.5.17 of the Integrated Planning Act 1997; (see also sections 22C(3) and 22K(2) of the Vegetation Management Act 1999)

Grounds for appeal (attach further details if necessary)

Appeals regarding ongoing clearing applications:

- the refusal, or refusal in part of the application
- a matter stated in a development approval including any condition applying to the approval
- the decision to give a preliminary approval when a development permit was applied for
- the length of currency period
- a deemed refusal.

4. Relevant dates

Note: This section of the form is not required to be completed by an applicant wishing to appeal against a deemed refusal.

1. Date that the decision notice from NR&W for the vegetation clearing application was received by applicant.

 / /

2. Date that appeal period was suspended (if suspended) by applicant.

 / /

3. Date that applicant made written representations to NR&W.

 / /

4. Date that the negotiated decision notice or written notice from NR&W was received by applicant.

 / /

5. Attachments

Note: An applicant wishing to appeal against a deemed refusal should attach a copy of the original clearing application only.

Applicant to attach a copy of each of the following:

- original vegetation clearing application
- original decision notice issued by NR&W
- applicant's written representations to NR&W
- negotiated decision notice or written notice issued by NR&W.

